

National Whisky Consultant STUART BROWN

Stuart Brown was trained over a decade ago by Johnnie Walker's Master Distillers and Master Blenders. Part of the Mentorship Program held at the famed Cardhu Distillery in Speyside, he studied all aspects of whisky from the cooperage, peat production, distilling process, blending of various whiskies in the Johnnie Walker and Classic Malts line. Stuart became the first Canadian National Whisky Ambassador for Johnnie Walker and the Classic Malts.

Under the tutelage of many whisky experts in the Johnnie Walker family such as Ian Williams, Jonathan Driver, Evan Cattanach and Jim Beverage, Stuart compiled information that now has become the basis of his seminars.

Not a stranger to the Master Class programs across Canada, Stuart has been part of numerous Whisky Shows and has enlightened thousands of whisky enthusiasts.

His enthusiasm and passion for the history of whisky enables him to deliver a tasting like no other.
